Important Announcements & Dates

Community Conversations

Mr. Eric Smola, superintendent of Evergreen Local Schools, and Mr. Brian Carroll, treasurer, will be out in the community available to discuss District happenings, answer questions, receive feedback, and listen to concerns. This is also a great opportunity to openly talk about the potential fifth grade transition and any other pending issues. Please come to the following open conversations, grab a seat, and talk.

- ★ March 23 - Wolf It Down BBQ from 4:00-5:00 pm in Lyons

Congratulations Wrestlers!

Kristine Hockenberry placed third at her regional competition and will participate in the Girls Wrestling State Tournament at the Schottenstein Center in Columbus March 10-12. Grant Richardson placed fifth at Districts and was named an alternate to the Boys State Wrestling Tournament.

EES Substitute with Medical Background Needed

Evergreen Elementary is in need of a medical professional to serve as a one-to-one substitute. Qualifications include being either a nurse or a paramedic. The substitute is needed to assist a medically fragile child during the school day when the assigned employee is out of the building. The substitute will only be needed for a minimal number of days throughout the school year. If interested, please contact Kristy Schmidlin, Student Services Director, at KSchmidlin@evgvikings.org.
